— REFLECTIONS FROM BISHOP JORDAN’S DESK —
Black History
Galatians 3:28

Black History had its genesis (beginnings) in 1915. When Carter G. Woodson founded the Assoc. to promote and educate people of the negro race. Woodson envisioned a weeklong week, through the “Association for the Study of African American Life and History.” His desire was to broaden the nation’s consciousness of the Negro in America and their contributions to the growth of America. President Gerald Ford officially recognized Black History Month in 1976, calling upon the public to seize the opportunity to honor the neglected accomplishments of the Negroes in America. The struggle for recognition is still struggling hard today. Some say we’ve come a long way, yet we know we have a long way to go.

One of the most challenging tasks for our race is the great need to educate our descendants, who to this day are falling behind in America’s way of life. Unless our descendants see the importance of education and preparation, we as a race will continue to fall behind in America. As a race, we will more than likely never reach the pinnacle of full acceptance by America. However, we must still press on, for the development of full equality in America.

REFLECTIONS FROM BISHOP JORDAN'S DESK (CON'T)

the As a race of people, we cannot, and we must not stop pressing our way for full exception. We cannot meagerly, not celebrate the Month of February as Black History Month.

As the years and decades are moving fast, we must never give in or give up. We must not get discouraged in well doing, for we shall reap if we faint not. So let us continue to march and speak up for our rightful place in the United States, as well as worldwide.

Blacks are powerful people, who have never given in, or given up. So let us press on until we are fully integrated in America. Even if it is just for a month designated as Black History Month.

Amen.

Bishop Nathaniel D. Jordan, Sr., DD
Senior Pastor
Apostolic Faith Temple, Inc.

“Safe And Secure”

The safest shelter,
that is known to man
is coming to rest . . .
right into God’s hand.

There’s no other place,
in which we can find
a perfect defense for
the heart and mind.

The safest refuge,
in which to flee
is in the sanctuary
of bended knee

There’s no place,
that is more securer
than when in prayer
with our soul’s insurer.

The safest abode,
that is known to man
is prayerfully finding shelter in His hand!

*“Trust in him
at all times; ye people,
pour out your heart
before him:
God is a refuge for us. Selah.”*
